China Panda Tour & Volunteering

Visit China, the only place on earth where panda lovers can volunteer at the Bifengxia Panda Center and closely interact with these amazing animals. Access China Tours is a dedicated sponsor of Pandas International for all its efforts for long term conservation of this endangered species.

Suzanne Braden started the non-profit Pandas International in 1999 to benefit the long term survival of the endangered Giant Panda. Her work since the 2008 Wenchuan Earthquake has been invaluable in bringing critically needed supplies and expertise to help the relocated pandas. A portion of your tour cost ($125 USD per person) will be donated to Pandas International to further their conservation efforts.

On this tour, you will explore Beijing, Xi'an, Sichuan, and Shanghai -- visiting the Forbidden City, Great Wall, Temple of Heaven, Terra Cotta Warriors Museum, Jinsha Museum, Chengdu Panda Breeding Center, Shangli Old Village, the Bund, and Shanghai Museum. More importantly, you will volunteer at the Bifengxia Panda Center and have the opportunity to see Tai Shan of the DC National Zoo and Mei Lan of the Atlanta Zoo in their new homes!

Adorable Tai Shan was born at the Smithsonian National Zoological Park in Washington DC on July 9th 2005

China is a land of history and refinement unparalleled in the world. Attentive visitors are immersed in a sea of visual and cultural experiences unlike any other they may have had elsewhere. This adventure is focused on Giant Panda and by volunteering, you will have the very rare opportunity to interact with this lovely bear.

The 8.0 magnitude Wenchuan Earthquake in May 2008 severely damaged the facilities at the Wolong Panda Protection & Research Base. Because of the instability of the mountain slopes in Wolong, the authorities had no choice but to abandon this site as a home for the pandas. Seventy giant pandas have been transferred from Wolong to the Bifengxia Panda Base located two hours to the southwest of Chengdu. All Wolong research and administrative staff have also been relocated to Bifengxia.

This journey begins in Beijing with an exploration of the beauty of the imperial city, meetings with urban Chinese residents; discover the splendor of China's glorious past: the Forbidden City, Temple of Heaven, and the famous Badaling Great Wall. Also witness the dynamic and ever-changing life pace in today's capital of China.

Flying on to Xi'an, once the largest city in the world. Visit and explore the Terracotta Warriors Museum in homage to Qinshihuang. It is considered China's preeminent archaeological discovery. Tour other important historic sites in the ancient Tang Dynasty capital.

The next stop of our tour is Chengdu, a place of color, spirit and fiery food. A visit to the Giant Panda Breeding & Research Center will prove to be a thrill. Ponder at the marvelous findings at the Jinsha Archaeological Site & Museum. Relax and sip a cup of fragrant tea in a local teahouse and enjoy a fascinating face-changing performance.

Travel by vehicle to Bifengxia, a scenic valley in the green mountains of western Sichuan. Spend two days with these lovely bears and the hard working staff who have dedicated their lives to the well-being of this endangered species. Your volunteering work at the giant panda base is much appreciated by the Chinese scientists and workers. There are also opportunities to explore the surrounding parks and villages.

Wing on to the Last stop of our tour – Shanghai, China's most populous city and its economic powerhouse. The European Bund still retains the glamour of the colonial era; modern western shops, boutiques and restaurants fill the streets of central Shanghai. Visit the traditional Yuyuan Garden and spend some time exploring Shanghai Museum, the best in China.

Fly home from Shanghai Pudong Airport.

Giant Panda's New Home – Bifengxia Panda Center & Nature Preserve

The Wenchuan Earthquake on May 12, 2008 damaged most of the facilities at the Wolong Panda Preserve. Because of the instability of the hillsides, Chinese authorities had no choice but to abandon Wolong temporarily as a home for pandas. Seventy giant pandas have been transferred from Wolong to the Bifengxia Panda Center located two and half hours to the southwest of Chengdu. All Wolong research and administrative staff have also been relocated to Bifengxia.

Bifengxia Panda Center was opened in 2003 as the world's largest program for artificial insemination of the Giant Panda. It is arguably the best place to see pandas in their natural habitat. Encompassing 25 square miles, Bifengxia Nature Preserve where the panda center is located has long been famous for its breathtaking canyons, forests, rivers, and waterfalls. The preserve is also one of the largest wildlife parks in China with over 300 animal species living in the wild. Special natural zones are set aside for lions, tigers, and bears. There are also enclosed zones featuring monkey, all kinds of birds, ostrich, red panda, and numerous rare animals.
